OCEAN CITY, MARYLAND HOLDS BIG APPEAL FOR GROUPS

Ocean City, Maryland is “The East Coast’s Number One Family Resort,” with waves of activities and events. Those same activities and amenities that lure vacationers also appeal to meeting and convention attendees. Delegates find Ocean City’s family-friendly environment filled with exciting things to see and do when they take a break from business. Sun, sand, and surf always beckon. So, too, do 17 area championship golf courses, deep-sea fishing, water sports, amusements, antique and outlet shopping, a world-famous Boardwalk, and 10 miles of the best white-sand beaches on the East Coast.

Ocean City offers business travelers with a choice of accommodations, including 10,000 hotel rooms and suites as well as more than 25,000 condominium units; of these 4,859 are committable year-round for meetings.

Ocean City’s primary meeting and convention facility is the Roland E. Powell Convention Center. The center offers 182,200 square feet multi-functional space; 67,000 square feet of dedicated exhibit space; a 25,000-square-foot, multi-purpose ballroom, and 28,000 square feet of meeting space divided into 22 flexible breakout rooms. The Ocean City Convention Center will be expanding to meet client needs in 2012.

The center features on-site food and beverage service along with full-service catering by Centerplate; a veteran convention staff, free wi-fi service, and free parking for more than 1,000 cars and buses.

Every season offers a reason to meet in Ocean City. For more information, contact the Ocean City Convention Center’s sales team at 410-289-2800 or 800-626-2326, or visit oceancitymd.gov.

Inside is 182,000 square feet. Outside is 10 miles of fun.
